Hand Us That $.

Next Monday is County Court Day.

Try Fleischman's Yeast. W. B. Ball "Princess Buns", 5 cents a dozen at W. B. Ball's.

President Wilson's hat is in the ring, cast somewhat reluctantly, he says.

Try our self rising flour. Saves time and labor. Hudson, Hughes & Farnau.

If some people should ever try to swallow their pride they would choke to death.

When you come to town next Monday, PLEASE BRING US THAT DOLLAR.

A woman feels that she has lost her grip when she can no longer twist a man around her little finger.

Car load of Northern seed oats. These oats are bright and high test. Hudson, Hughes & Farnau.

What a profoundly silent place this world would be if we should talk only when we have something to say.

M. S. Hatfield, Dentist, is now located in Lancaster. Office over Garrard Bank. All calls appreciated.

Lincoln Prize Seed Corn yields enormously in corn and silage. For sale only by Hudson, Hughes & Farnau.

If you owe us for the Central Record please pay us, as we cannot afford to spend $1.00 in stamps to get a dollar.

The Ladies of the Baptist church, will serve court day dinner at the store room vacated by Dickerson & Carrier. Come, eat and help. The Ladies.

New crop clover, timothy, orchard grass and Ky. Blue Grass seed now in. We handle only the highest test seeds. Hudson, Hughes & Farnau.

Union services will be at Presbyterian church Sunday evening, worship beginning at 7:15. F. M. Tindler will preach the sermon, his subject, "Lancaster's Proposition to the Public".

We are indebted to Mrs. U. D. Simpson for an old copy of the CENTRAL RECORD published July 17th 1891, at which time the first Garrard County fair was held in the woods of B. F. Hudson.

Barksdale Hamlet is said to aspire to the portfolio of Assistant Secretary of War, made vacant by the resignation of Henry Breckenridge. From our view point it would seem Barksdale already has enough war on hand, but perhaps he has his hand in and does not aspire to being a pacificator.

MULE DAY MONDAY.

Mr. J. L. Hamilton has announced that he will sell about 40 mules at Burton's barn in this city next Monday, it being County court day. Mr. Hamilton is offering these hybrids on easy terms and if some one needs anything in this line, they will do well to be on hand that day.

EYE SPECIALIST COMING.

In this issue of the Record appears the announcement of Dr. J. J. Byrne, the noted eye specialist, of Cincinnati, who is due to arrive in the city March 6th and will remain until the 18th of the month. His office will be in the Kengarian Hotel.

ARM BROKEN.

Mr. Will Jones while attempting to crank a car last Sunday afternoon, had the misfortune to get his arm broken, by the machine "back firing", the crank striking his arm and breaking it in two places. While quite painful, Mr. Jones is able to be out, but says he will fight shy of another auto crank.

DOCTORS MEET.

The Garrard County Medical Society was called to order by its President, Dr. W. L. Carman, last Thursday evening in the offices of Drs. J. B. and Virgil Kinnaird. These meetings are called monthly and have proven quite profitable, to say nothing of the social features which go with it. After the business session was over they repaired to the "Parlor" where a delightful lunch was served.

COLORED AUNTIE DEAD.

"Aunt" Jane Adams, a most highly respected colored woman who had lived in the family of Mr. B. F. Hudson for thirty years died at the residence of Mr. Hudson Monday. Aunt Jane was 76 years old and although she had been able to work but little for a number of years, she will be sadly missed as she had been identified with the family so long and was looked upon as a member of the family. She was tenderly cared for in her last illness and laid to rest with love and gratitude.

AWARDED CONTRACT.

Mr. James Hatcher, of this city, who has been carrying the mails from Lancaster to Danville for the past twelve years, was again awarded this contract for another four years. This will be good news to the friends and patrons of this service for during the time that Mr. Hatcher has had this contract he has made many friends and his service has been all that could be asked for. He now has two nice automobiles in use and is prepared to serve the public for any occasion in which a machine may be needed.

NEXT MONDAY.

To Be Another Record Day For Lancaster.

What promises to be by far the biggest day in the history of the town, will be that of Monday Feb'y 28th, which is next Monday. Indications are that the town will be full of mules and horses to say nothing of the Country Merchants and their patrons that will be on hand to see that these stores are sufficiently advertised.

Lancaster has had two big days this year, but the one next Monday will surpass them all. Take it from us.

J. E. MONTGOMERY Injured In Auto Wreck.

While returning home from Danville last Saturday night, Mr. J. E. Montgomery, of this city had the misfortune of wrecking his new automobile, beside receiving several cuts and bruises, his collar bone being broken and several ribs crushed. The accident happened about one mile from Danville and was caused by running into a rock pile and overturning the car. He was carried to the Danville Hospital where he still remains under medical treatment. The car is a total wreck.

NEW PAPER

Launched At Winchester With Lucien Beckner At Helm.

A copy of the Clark County Republican, the first issue published by the new management, has just reached our desk. It is a "rip roaring" good looking paper and if a republican paper can succeed in that good live town, Winchester, Lucien Beckner is the man to turn the trick. We are glad to have it among our exchanges and hope for it a prosperous future. The only possible objection we could find with it, is its politics. Luck to you brother Beckner.

QUEEN ROSA.

Owned By W. B. Burton Brings $725.

Men who are posted on the value of such animals think that when Queen Rosa was "knocked down" at the Lexington sales last week, for $725, the purchaser got a big bargain. She was one of the best mares our last season and good judges predicted that she would bring at least $1500. She was purchased early last season by Mr. W. B. Burton and was handled through the season by Mr. Mat Cohen, winning something over $1800 during the circuit. Taken as a whole the sale was considered the best that has been held in Lexington for a number of years, good prices being realized for both saddlers and trotters.

LANDRUM'S CLAIM

Passes House and Now Looks Like A Cinch

Representative Mann, of Illinois, Republican leader in the House, made an ineffectual fight on the floor to prevent the passage of a bill to carry out the findings of the United States Court of Claims in the case of Louis Landrum, administrator of the estate of William J. Landrum, who was collector of internal revenue in the Eighth Kentucky district from 1875 to 1884.

The bill was passed after the minority leader had resorted to every parliamentary tactic to delay and defeat it. The Kentuckian's claim was covered by a bill by Representative Harvey Helm and favorably reported by the Committee on Claims. It seeks to reimburse the former collector's estate for commissions on internal revenue collections for the last four years of his term of office, the claim for the first four having been allowed. The claim for the commission of 1881 to 1884 previously was disallowed by a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States under the statute of limitations.

PRICES SOARING

Paper Increase Causes Worry in Printing Trade--Inks and Coloring Materials Up.

Uncertainty as to the future price of printing paper is causing uneasiness in the printing business. Scarcity of both dyes and other material used in the manufacture of paper has driven the price of paper upward from 25 to 50 per cent., according to dealers, and printing ink is also much higher. Some paper mills have stopped making certain kinds of paper altogether because they are unable to secure the proper coloring material. This is especially true with regard to blue, yellow and red paper. Paper mills are refusing to quote prices for the future and have withdrawn all price lists. In addition to the lack of dyes the scarcity of rags is making itself felt. As in so many other instances the European war is being blamed for the situation. Immense stores of rags in warehouse two years ago have been used, and no supplementing supplies have reached this country for many months, according to Frank Buerck, superintendent of the Courier-Journal Job Printing Company, and C. C. Oasley, president of the Kentucky Print Shop. Both said printing ink of certain colors cannot be had at all, while other kinds cost from 20 to 300 per cent more than formerly. A number of laundries are notifying their customers that they will not be responsible for the fading of colored goods that are sent to their establishment. George P. Deuser, of a Louisville laundry, said permanent dyes are not used any longer in coloring goods.

FISH CLUB MEMBERS:

ATTENTION:

There will be a meeting of the members of the Lake Placid Fishing Club in the police court room next Saturday night. It is important that all old and any new members be present, that dues may be collected and cards issued for another year. Officers for year 1916 will be elected on this night. Remember that only members in good standing will be allowed to fish in Lake Placid.

HAMLETT DROPS

HIS CONTEST.

An agreement was reached last Saturday night between Secretary of State James P. Lewis, Republican, and Barksdale Hamlett, the Democratic candidate for the office in the November election, whereby the contest for Lewis' seat, instituted by Hamlett and now in the courts, will be dropped.

A statement made by Mr. Hamlett Saturday night recites that he still believes that he was rightfully elected to the office, but that the unfortunate developments in his family affairs, the heavy expense he incurred in the primary and general election and "the hostile conditions in and out of the party," have made it impossible for him to continue his contest without imposing upon his friends and he withdraws out of a sense of loyalty to his family and for the preservation of party harmony.

It is the opinion in Frankfort political circles that Hamlett's decision to drop his contest and make terms with Lewis was due to the lack of encouragement he received from the Democratic party organization, and the formidable increase in the expense of gathering evidence in the innumerable election precincts of the State.

Mr. Hamlett, who has been working on his contest since the first of the year, announced that he would take a long vacation at Dawson or some other resort and would later return to Frankfort to practice law.

COLONIAL TEA GIVEN BY WOMAN'S CLUB A GREAT SUCCESS.

One of the prettiest, as well as one of the most unique, entertainments ever given in Lancaster was the one given by the Woman's club in their beautiful club room in the Graded school building, Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Library. Invitations had been sent out asking friends to come en-costume, "with powder and patches and gowns of old times" and many came dressed and in the spirit of the entertainment. The room had been decorated most beautifully with red, white and blue bunting, streamers, pictures of Martha and George Washington and flags galore.

The tea table, set in colonial silver and white and gold china, where coffee, tea, sandwiches and old-time pepper mints were served was presided over by Mrs. McRoberts and Mrs. Elkin.

The silhouettes, drawn by Mrs. John Storms, were the most attractive feature of the evening, evincing artistic skill, many of the counterfeit presentments said to be speaking likeness. These shadow pictures were numbered and eight guessed the original of every number correctly. The two first prizes, a picture of George Washington and a hatchet went to Miss Elsie Morrow and Mrs. J. S. Gilbert. The second prizes went to Mesdames Denny, Davidson, Miss Kate Kinnaird and Miss Sue Shelby Mason. Mrs. George Robinson received the "booby" prize, a toy pistol.

In the receiving line was this years President, Mrs. Robert Elkin, and the Vice President, Mrs. Frank Marksberry, they were assisted in receiving and entertaining by the Presidents ex-officio Mesdames Kaufman, Kinnaird, McRoberts, Geo. Robinson, Joe Robinson, Curry and Cook. These ladies looked and acted the part of colonial dames. Unique features of the entertainment were some of the gowns worn. Mrs. Mattie Duncan wore Mrs. Rebecca West's wedding gown, while Miss Alberta Anderson wore that of Mrs. Dorcas Dabney. Mrs. Cabel Denny looked quaint with powdered curls, wearing a large plaid silk of Miss Annie Goodloe's. Mrs. Fred Frisbie wore an exquisite lace mantilla of Mrs. Martha Frisbie, these costumes, together with those that had been made for the occasion made it one long to be remembered in the Woman's Club.

The library of this club is growing daily and the silver offering received will place books on the bookshelves that will be a joy to many for years to come.
